Introduction

For submitting papers to the 18th IFOAM OWC and 4th ISOFAR Scientific conference 'Building Organic Bridges', to be held 13-15 October 2014 in Istanbul, Turkey, the Organic Eprints Archive will be used (www.orgprints.org). Accepted papers will be made available at the Archive as open and searchable online proceedings after they are accepted.

These guidelines explain the most important steps that need to be taken for submitting a paper to Organic Eprints, including screenshots with explanations.

To register: Click "Create account"

Fill in the required fields

Register

You need to register in order to be able to deposit items in the repository.

As a registered user you will be able to manage your items, up to the point of submitting them for Editorial Review. If the review is successful your item will be deposited in the repository; if it is unsuccessful it will be returned to you with editorial comments.

In addition to managing your items a registered user can set up alert options, so that email notifications are sent when new items are placed in the repository.

Please complete the details on this page to register with Organic Eprints.

The registration process uses email to send you details of how to activate your account. You must then check your email and activate your password. Once activated you can start to use the registered features of the repository.

If you have already registered but have forgotten your username or password, click here to set a new password.

Deposit Agreement

In depositing this eprint (a collection of files and associated bibliographic metadata), I grant Organic Eprints the right to make it permanently available on-line, with open access to all or in accordance with any access restrictions that I have specified. (Removal of eprints from the public archive is strongly discouraged, but will be granted upon request.) I understand that Organic Eprints does not assume any responsibility if there is any breach of copyright in distributing these files or metadata.

For work being deposited by its own first author: I declare that this eprint is my own intellectual property and that I have the right to make it available in Organic Eprints in the manner chosen.

For work being deposited by someone other than its first author: I declare that I have gained the proper permissions from someone with the right to make this eprint available in Organic Eprints in the manner chosen - or that the material is in the public domain.

Clicking on the deposit button indicates your agreement to these terms. If you do not wish to deposit the eprint right now you can return to your user area, where you will find this eprint in your workspace. You can then later edit, clone and deposit it.

After submission you will see these messages:

Item has been deposited.

Your item will not appear on the public website until it has been checked by an editor.

Your contribution will not be uploaded into the main archive and thus appear on the public website until shortly before the congress.

To check whether your contribution has been deposited properly, go to "Manage deposits". Your contribution should be listed as this:

Last Modified ▾	Title	EPrint Type	Item Status
11 Feb 2013 15:07	This is the title of my paper	Submit a paper or a poster to a conference	Under Review

After you have deposited your paper,

- You will receive an email receipt from the congress organisers within 7 days, confirming that your paper has been submitted
 - If you do not receive a receipt, please check to make sure that you finished depositing your paper by clicking the “Deposit item now” button.
 - If you still do not receive a receipt, contact Duygu Kayadelen:
duyguk@bugday.org
- The paper will go through a review process, and you will be notified of the outcome by 3^{0th} October 2013.

“Save for later”

If you choose “Save for later”, you can see a preview and edit if needed (Details tab)
